

They land with great excitement, little Sophie can't wait. "Let's go find Santa Giniegum, before it's too late!"

They set off through the North Pole and come across a sign. "Go straight on to see Santa and left for the pantomime."

They decide to go straight and they walk through the snow. A reindeer appears and his nose is aglow.

"Hello little reindeer could we ask for your help?
We are looking for Santa and all of the elves!"

"Come along with me," little reindeer did say. "I'm off to join Santa and the others on his sleigh. He will be at his workshop, it's just round this bend.
It's lovely to meet you it's nice to make friends."

They go past some fern trees they're covered in snow. Little reindeer leads the way with his nose all aglow.

They get to Santa's workshop. It's bright and full of colour. A little Elf is dashing here and there, in fact he's in a flutter.
